LP VIDEO

[Value proposition above functions as the LP video heading]

CREDIBILITY STATEMENT 1

“Many issues have simply vanished like they've been blown away.”

– Julie G. Germany

THIS IS FOR YOU IF

This is for you

If your spiritual life has you feeling...

- Exhausted (why am I doing this again?)
Spiritual practice has become a grind, and you're not seeing real, tangible benefits from all that work
- Forever-healing (why always tears, never laughter?)
Around every corner on your "healing journey" there is more to clear, process or integrate
- Stranded (was it real or a dream?)
You've experienced indescribable peace and bliss that enlarged your heart and made you feel light and transparent, but then it "left"
- Confused (what do I actually do next?)
You've gone down many spiritual paths, and you don't know which concepts or practices are really necessary, or which even work for you
- Burned out (can I keep going?)
Always doing the "work," often supporting others, your load gets heavier and heavier

Whether you are weary from the spiritual climb, or the never-ending healing journey, you are not here by accident.

Now it is time to stop "working on yourself".

Your heart and soul are ready to finally experience the joy and flow that becomes your steady, new normal.

CREDIBILITY STATEMENTS 2

“Everything is working out on its own without me having to try... an incredible sense of calm and anticipation.”

– Anja, Entrepreneur

AUDIENCE CALL OUT: PAIN POINTS

Are you experiencing “spiritual burnout”?

- Taking one workshop after another for years... but you still aren't where you want to be financially, in your relationships, with your health, and spiritual contentment.
- Feeling fleeting new hope with each new "method" or "course"... only to find it hard to stick with it for the long term, and so the results quickly fade.
- Learning esoteric spiritual concepts that are complicated and impractical for day-to-day life.
- Always feeling like there is “more to fix” or “heal”, and you just want to finally arrive in and effortlessly maintain states of joy, love, and inner peace.

If this resonates, you are not alone, and it's not your fault.

The solution is not the spiritual work that brought you to this point.

In fact, the endless work is what's keeping you stuck.

And STOPPING is HOW you'll finally get results.

Because transformation happens when you let Divine Energy do 90% of the work.

You just learn to do your 10% - easily, simply, joyfully

- Learn about a natural part of every human being's mind that has evolved to STOP us from living as our Larger, Enlightened Selves.
- Discover (and experience first-hand) how humor (instead of arduous, serious processing) is one of the most effective tools for Awakening.

– Sabine Faast, Songwriter, Retired Nurse, Munich

HOW IT WORKS

How it works

- Letting go of the spiritual hard work is how you'll finally break through

We don't realize that striving creates an invisible tension or resistance that lowers your frequency. Working too hard on yourself creates a chronic belief that "I strive but I never arrive." You'll make a quantum leap to easeful, enjoyable, rapid, evolution. You become "happy now, open for more."

- Let Divine Energy do the heavy lifting

You learn how to just do your 10%. Divine Energy supports every creature in nature with total, perfect ease, but human Free Will allows you to get out of alignment with your Soul, and you may not even realize it. You'll learn how to consistently catch the misalignment, return to your own Home Frequency, get "out of the way" and back in the flow.

- Feel Divine Openings and Divine Mother Hugs

These Divine Energy Transmissions from Lola awaken you and melt resistance at deep levels. You experience immediate relief, lightness, and bliss, a strong taste of being your true inner self, "in the flow," and "out of the way."

The easy tools allow you to stay “up there”. Real-life results that match your Home Frequency show up more and more.

You stop striving for “someday” and start enjoying the arriving NOW.

TEXT TESTIMONIALS 1

What People Are Saying about Lola’s Divine Energy Transmissions

What Happens When You Swap “Spiritual Work” for Joyful, Ease, and Flow

Wonderful...profound...I felt like I was floating

"Right after our zoom, I knew something wonderful and profound had happened, and it continues to this day. I felt like I was floating and was able to enjoy myself and my relationship even more!

The reason I didn't get back to you and rave about it much sooner is simply that I can barely remember the problem I brought to you. 😊 Of course, I still know it mentally, but I can't feel it anymore; it feels so distant. And even now, a month later, there haven't been any triggering moments that would have activated that feeling. And I don't even want to dig it up...

I just want to thank you from the bottom of my heart and share my happiness with you!"

– Jessica D, psychotherapist, Germany

I Am Not "Fixed"–I Am Empowered

"Important realization: I am not a fixed construct built from adopted beliefs, but rather a soft being that I myself can pamper and love and appreciate and help in any ways I need it. I am in total empowerment and gratitude."

– Petra W., Germany

Releasing Past Trauma to Find Heavenly Peace Today

"No more suffering. I am empowered. I went to the newly incarnated little Petra and gave her the love she needs. She wants to leave the space-time in which she was stuck to come into the present moment with me. Here we have an environment of love, support, abundance, and trust, in which she can now develop. Now I know that my Large Self is always there and provides me with everything I need—and everything I would have needed back then. I now see my parents with love and deep gratitude—simply because they are my parents and agreed to bring me into the world. Now I'm just lying here, enjoying what's flowing toward me. That feels like heaven."

– Petra W., Munich

Shifting from Hidden Beliefs to Authentic Growth

"I think I went back to sleep for a while and this course is a re-awakening for me. I am loving the phrase you used, "synthetic feeling." I am feeling all feelings but now I ask myself, "is it authentic or synthetic?" Is it a belief that has slipped in that I'm unaware of? Does it belong to me or is it something I picked up? I'm also playing with the Meaning Generator, that's a fun one!!"

– June D, South Carolina

Breaking Free From Change Paralysis After Layoff

"I don't feel frozen anymore when it comes to change after getting fired from that job I didn't love. I NOW DECIDE to choose another road: follow my heart, allow myself to have fun, and be passionate about what I'm doing.

So excited what is going to happen next! Sometimes there are rushes of panic, "what if?" At the same time I feel that somehow I am on the perfect wave. Friends are stepping up to do things for me, like help with legal stuff. My son has good insights. I'm so blessed!!! And I am with you in the Soul Accelerator Course! I just do my steps, and my new story is "Now is the perfect time for change. Now I get paid for finding the new job I really want."

– Bettina V, Munich, Corporate attorney

Stepping into a New, Higher Vibrational Energy

"I'm so often in the empowered, high-vibrational energy that I notice I'm settling into a new, higher plateau. I recognize which stories have led to which beliefs, and I've already been able to completely transform some of those beliefs. I've discovered that I can consciously choose empowerment (at the very top of the Instrument Panel.) This awareness catapults me into a high vibration immediately and at the same time enables me to feel even lower feelings. What's particularly remarkable for me is that the largest Self I can imagine sits on a throne in the Universe, creating from there. Since yesterday, I no longer see this Large Self sitting on the throne, but standing – even more empowered, even more consciously creating.”

– Petra W, Munich

Issues Simply Vanished

"Wrapped in the soothing sound of your voice and the Divine Mother Hug I feel regenerated and brand new, my heart is at peace and my head is clear."

– Julie G., Germany

Fear Melted Away Immediately

"That last (big) bit of fear melted away immediately, and so all parts of me—the fearful and the courageous—were able to show up as a true team... whoooooo!"

– Melanie, Germany

A New Reality, Blissed Out

"It's a new reality, I tell ya! ...I was so blissed out...oh my gosh look, look it's happened we are singing in an opera, I couldn't believe it!"

– Danielle Pearson, Flight Attendant & Singer, New Zealand

Breaking the "Forever-Healing" Loop

"I feel so much more clarity now. I always lived in my head, not my heart and body. Learning your tools helped me understand how our stories, judgments, and beliefs create our life experience.... free of the past, free of judgment, free of negative stories and beliefs, free of guilt, shame and blame, and free to live and love from my Large Self."

– Lenora B., Canada

No More Chronic Body or Gut Pain

"Doctors and alternative practitioners couldn't heal my gut or give me relief from my body pain. They said there was nothing wrong. Now I get just how directly my unconscious emotions were talking to me through that pain! And now I get why the pain wouldn't go away - I wasn't getting the message! Now that I know how to feel those messages and give myself what I need, no more pain in my body, and no more upset in my gut!"

– Sabine Faast, Singer/Songwriter, Retired Nurse, Munich

EXPANDED VALUE PROPOSITION

The Myth of Continuous "Clearing"

Endless clearing, cleansing, and processing often don't last because they only relieve the temporary symptom, not the underlying cause.

If you keep thinking and feeling from the same old framework, the same structure of reality, then the same challenges keep coming back.

Working on one isolated issue at a time forever is like a spiritual game of whack-a-mole—as soon as you knock one down, more arise.

When you resolve the entire structure your reality is built upon, everything clears up simultaneously across your life.

By changing the very structure of how you experience reality, the change actually lasts.

Because if a healer is always fixing you, you never get truly empowered.

My goal is to show you exactly how your reality is constructed and what gives rise to those repetitive thoughts and feelings.

Once you understand the mechanism, you are completely empowered. You finally KNOW the powerful being you truly are.

Together, We'll Move Beyond

- Endless “working on yourself”.
- Waiting for your life to change “someday.”
- Feeling like you landed on the wrong planet.
- Relying on healers, psychics, and friends to guide and fulfill you.

Friends and loved ones are supposed to be partners in fun - not venting, complaining, and emergency support.

With simple Divine Energy, we end the struggle, suffering, confusion, and self-doubt.

It's time to stop striving for “someday” in the future, and finally enjoy your arriving, right here and now.

ABOUT YOUR HOST

About Your Host: Lola Jones

I was once a frustrated seeker, working hard at it: spiritual books, sessions, healings, certifications, and workshops. I meditated one hour a day for 11 years, but I still wasn't happy.

I helped a lot of others, but my life was just “okay.”

After 20 years of seeking, I said to Source, "I am exhausted. I want a path of joy, or I "QUIT!"

Soon, in 2006 I heard about a 21 day silent retreat deep in India. India was NOT on my bucket list, but I felt a deep inner insistence to go there.

I didn't speak to another human being for 21 days, or even make eye contact. I let go of everything I knew, and got completely empty. Lifetimes of being a shaman, priestess, healer, and teacher awakened in me.

Back at home, Divine Energy carried me along as if on wings. Everything in my life worked better. I was finally free, happy.

I wrote a book about my experiences and to help thousands of people all over the world who face these challenges. My book is called Things Are Going Great in My Absence: How to Let Go and Let The Divine Do the Heavy Lifting.

Most people who have profound awakenings soon lose it, and that happened for most of those in that 21 day retreat. They left blissed out, but soon were back to seeking!

But suddenly I knew exactly how to not only help people find that bliss, but sustain it, and grow it forever after.

I could not stop giving people Divine Openings and Divine Mother Hugs, sharing, healing, writing, creating courses, retreats, and teaching.

People all over the world soon found me, and now 20 years later thousands of lives are elevated.

More Real World Life Shifts

Manifesting a Job With a Massive Salary

"I thought I blew the interview, but I got the job! My girl friend who has worked there for 18 years said, "Andrea, they must have really wanted you back, because they don't offer any manager that type of salary!" At first I panicked as my old issues kicked in, that I'm gonna let them down, or that they are making a mistake in hiring me. I did the practices you gave us and then felt like, "Yeah I'm supposed to be here, because I created being here, and created a company (family) that wants me.""

– Andrea K, Southern California

Spontaneously Healing a Long-Standing Family Estrangement

"I had a wonderful phone call with my mother - we've had little contact since my parent's divorce, and very little contact since my father's death. We were able to speak so openly with each other, and I felt deep compassion and love. It was a beautiful mix of gratitude, love, joy and understanding."

– Karen R, Austria

Dissolving Deadlocked Work Situations into Creative Flow

"It was magical: at work, seemingly deadlocked situations dissolved, and a wonderful flow and curious resonance to my ideas emerged. What's more, I'm no longer exhausted after work in the evenings! Of course, I now want the same thing in other areas of my life... things will automatically fall into place in other areas such as relationships, money, health, etc. as I continue to flow creatively in my work environment and keep trying new things."

– Knut, Hamburg, Teacher

Prosperity and Deep Soul Fulfillment

"After working with you I had created prosperity and success. This time I went for soul fulfillment. Yesterday, just before going to sleep, the message suddenly came to me: 'You are allowed to have everything so that you feel fulfilled.' A wonderful sentence that swept away all my old beliefs. Suddenly I felt like I was entering a completely new world within myself, a complete trust in myself, something unshakable, an inner wisdom opening up to me."

– Sandra E., Web Designer & Copywriter, and Dr. Theresia K., Austria

Aligning Intentions With Massive Family Support

"Things that I have set intentions for over the years have come to fruition in the last couple of weeks. My uncle, cousins, all their kids, and mum all helped me move house. Even my new neighbors were offering to help with anything I might need. It is the most family I have had around me since I was a child. I felt like my heart was going to burst."

– Danielle, Flight attendant, singer, New Zealand

Overcoming Over-Thinking By Taking Simple Action: 10% method

"Your suggesting (strongly) that we take action steps to do our 10% was a profound awareness for me. I started taking a qigong class and can feel my body's joy at the wonderful movement, and took training to be a hospice volunteer, offering well being and compassion to those in the last chapter of their current journey. As you so well know, I typically try to sit and "figure everything out" rather than taking action and moving feelings. This is a revelation to me to be using my Instrument Panel daily and taking action steps. Loving this Soul Accelerator."

– Sally H, New Hampshire, Retired physician

Shifting from Endurance to Following the Guidance of Your Future Self

"I had trained myself very hard to "endure things." This week I really GOT how even bad feelings are guidance, leading us to get us moving. It sometimes feels overwhelming to expand and let go of my old identity. I can feel that my Future Me is already there, and is pulling me in this new direction. And I feel so much the moment of NOW. The slow breathing you showed us helps a lot! It's all good. I am where I am and where I'm supposed to be. I feel good. This is a completely new feeling to me. Thank you so much, Lola! I love being on this journey!"

– Bettina, Munich, Corporate attorney

Enjoying the Human Ride on Earth

"What an uplifting webinar yesterday. Thank you sooo much...your large self EQ with the 300 years has opened such a huge space for me....wowiii....I really feel how it is to jump the matrix....all is good for my soul. I am full of love....I am love and I really am enjoying this human ride on earth."

– Tanja Witthause, Retired Schoolteacher & Charity Worker

Business Stress Replaced by Serene Success

"I went into total overwhelm when two of my employees were hospitalized and I had to do their work too. Right now, it feels like everything is working out on its own, without me having to try or do much. I'm simply receiving and acting, and it feels really good. Then I started running a new course on the nervous system. There were over 120 participants. It was an incredible feeling because there was no nervousness, no need to prove anything.... Afterward, I felt an incredible sense of contentment. I love this feeling. So wonderfully serene."

– Anja, Entrepreneur, South Africa

The Best Decision I Could Make

Even though I had a high consciousness before, I'm so happy I took the chance and experienced this great journey with this wonderful group. Doing this was the best decision I could make."

– Mel, Young Professional, Germany

FAQs

What if I can't make the event Live, will there be recordings?

Yes, don't worry, you will get replay links with the full event recordings! The energy still works quite powerfully through a recording, as there is no space and time, but if your mind believes it is more potent live, you may experience that.

What if I have trouble sticking to things?

This is the time to set important priorities. Your commitment to yourself, or lack of, creates your quality of life. Asking yourself this question is quite powerful:

"What AM I committed to? What would I NEVER neglect? What do I move mountains for?" My coffee? My social media scrolling? My job? My children? Commit to what really matters to YOU.

Will I feel the energy?

Most people will feel distinctly lighter, calmer, more at peace, and the mind will get quiet and stop chattering for a while. Depending on your current frequency and ability to feel energies, most people will feel something tangible like tingling, energy currents, warm or cool, strong emotion, tears, or involuntary body movements. You may see light, colors, or beings.

Will I know what the Divine Openings and Divine Mother Hugs did for me?

They work on you in so many dimensions that you may not be able to perceive it with your five senses. Some will feel it physically immediately. Others will feel it the next day. For some who are numb, have repressed emotions, or are not fully in their body it can take longer to melt through layers of resistance so they can feel it. Most people feel it. Everyone is likely to feel very good even if the mind doesn't understand it.

What if nothing has ever worked for me?

That is a belief you have built up, so please show up with a child's mind, and drop that belief.

What if the energy is too much for me?

It is never too much for you, but long-avoided emotions could unstick and move, or fear of change could arise. Unconscious fear of deep, rejected emotions holds so many people back. Lola will tell you what to do if intense emotions arise, and you'll get a webpage to refer to with a Dive In and Be With It meditation for that.

What changes can I expect?

Some will experience surprising positive manifestations after only this masterclass. Whenever you feel better, life begins to match that new frequency. Remember, however, that to sustain that higher frequency long-term, there are old habits to reprogram, and new habits to practice. Looking for magic bullet cures is where people often fail to sustain the long-term gains they desire.
